

4. Be inspired!

Look out of the window or into the garden and find something which inspires or interests you. Take time to study your object and understand it well. Spend a morning (or afternoon) making a dance, song, poem, peice of art, sculpture or story about your object.